CALIFORNIA FIVE LOST TO LOCALS

Vaughn's Basket Ball Tossers Celebrated Thanksgiving by Winning Decisive Victory.

In the first game of the season the Monessen basket ball team won a great victory over the California Normal Commercials at the rink yesterday. The game was fast and clean cut throughout and was witnessed by over 300 enthusiasts. The final score was 24 to 4.

The locals made an excellent showing considering this being their first game and their work was fast. They started scoring at the sound of the whistle and carried the visitors off their feet. At the end of the first half the score stood 17 to 0 in the local's favor. Everyone of the local players was successful in finding the basket, but Beadeing was the only one of the visitors who scored. The work of Arthur Hutton, who officiated was quite satisfactory, not a decision being seriously questioned. In the second half Feightner was benched to give Laird a chance to play. The teams lined up as follows

Monessen—24		Cal. Normal Com—4
Smith	c	Bearer
Loss	f	Kisor
Beadeing	f	See
Stewart	g	Feightner
Jones	g	Vaughn

Substitutes—Laird for Feightner.

BURNED MORTGAGE LAST EVENING.

St. Paul's Lutheran Church Lot Now Clear of Debt.—Celebration Was Well Attended.

Not a large but a select crowd attended the mortgage burning celebration at St Paul's Lutheran church last night. Miss Nelle Boore presided at the organ and rendered a beautiful voluntary. The pastor then conducted the liturgical service and offered prayer. The Rev. J. Elmer Bittle, missionary superintendent of the Pittsburg Synod, delivered the principal address of the evening, in which he offered congratulations to pastor and members on the splendid results achieved by this young congregation.

The audience gave close attention to Mr. Bittle's words of counsel and encouragement. After the address by the Rev. Mr. Bittle, other brief addresses were made by the pastor and Mr. J. B. Smith, secretary of the church council and Mr. A. W. Davis, the treasurer, who applied the match to the paper representing the mortgage. As the flames consumed it, the audience sang the doxology.

Congratulatory messages were read from the Rev. Dr. Turkle, of Allegheny and others Mr. H. A. Cook sang a very pleasing solo and later he and Miss Boore rendered a duet.

The congregation feels quite happy over the event. Only three years ago the last Sunday of last August this congregation was organized with thirty-one members. During the less than three years of Rev. Allbeck's pastorate, sixty-six members were received. Two years ago they bought two lots, each 16x100 feet, located on Eighth street, adjoining the old First National Bank building. The price was $2900.

It has required active and diligent labor during these two years to make last night's celebration possible. The people of St. Paul's Lutheran church are deeply grateful for every assistance given by the public. As soon as circumstances justify such an undertaking, a creditable church edifice will be erected on the property just paid for.

ANNUAL THANKSGIVING SERVICE ATTENDED BY LARGE CROWD

Opera House Hall Packed by Members and Pastors of All the Local Churches.

The annual Union Thanksgiving services were held in Opera House hall yesterday morning. Every chair in the hall was filled, and many who came late were forced to stand. The service was more successful and more largely attended, than in preceeding years. The Bethany Baptist choir furnished special music, and Mrs. Catherine Hall Thatcher rendered a very pleasing selection on the violin. An offering of over $25, besides quite a number of subscriptions was collected, the money to go to the Monongahela and McKeesport hospitals.

Rev. J.M Jamieson, pastor of the United Presbyterian church, delivered the sermon, which proved interesting, as well as instructive. He displayed unusual eloquence, handling his topic in a clear and forcible manner, and his discourse met with the approval of every one of his hearers. His text was taken from Psalms 103: 12 "Bless the Lord Oh My Soul, and Forget Not All His Benefits". The text was likened to an apple tree in the autumn woods laden with golden fruit, flavored and dispensed in the sunshine of God's mercy.

He dealt at length on the two kinds of progress material and Christian. He showed how in intelligence our High School curriculum of today equals that of Yale 75 years ago. How with all the pessimism of today there has been a great political progress.

OBSTREPEROUS LADY GETS HEAVY FINE

Allie Patterson, colored, was this morning sentenced to pay a fine of $25 or spend five days in the local jail on a charge of disorderly conduct. It seems that in an attempt to celebrate Thanksgiving she slightly overdid the thing and fell into Chief Woolsey's hands as a result. According to her story her brother-in-law, Joe Brooks, who she alleges dislikes her, got her loaded and then started a fuss in order to get her pinched. At the hearing she pleaded guilty to having been jagged but said that if His Honor would let her go, she would evaporate. The evidence showed that she had been particularly obstreperous however and the sentence followed. As no friends have thus far come to her rescue, it is likely that she will take the five days.

Two foreigners, also charged with drunkenness, were fined this morning.

Johnston-Kallar.

Thursday morning at the the U. B. parsonage Mr. Frank Johnston and Miss Margaret Kallar of California, Pa., were united in marriage. The groom was formerly one of Monessen's popular young men.

A Theatrical Superstition.

They were rehearsing a new play, and every one was nervous, for the first night was close at hand. The play was a tragedy, yet at its end the dying heroine, as the curtain descended, said: "Three beers, please."

Those words concluded the play. Yet they were entirely out of keeping. The concluding words should have been, "I die, but, since I have saved you, I die happy," or something to that effect.

A dramatic critic new to the business asked how it was that the tragedy ended with "Three beers, please," and the stage manager said:

"Superstition. It is always thought bad luck in rehearsals of new plays to speak the last sentence before the opening night. He who has the last sentence to speak substitutes some meaningless phrase for it. If he dared to speak the true phrase the prospects of the play would be thought doomed. Some playwrights won't even write the last line of a play. They whisper it to the assembled company on its first reading, and from that day till the actual production the line is never again heard."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Pet Boars.

The nicest pet the French forest affords is the marcassin, or baby wild boar. It is almost human in its cleverness, delights in funny pranks, has an evident sense of humor, makes friends of children and dogs and even lends itself to mimic hunts, playing the part of the hunted animal. Its antics are varied and original. The only creature to which the marcassin objects is its distant relative, the pig. Directly it sees that animal its back is up and its growing tusk is bared. In babyhood it has a lovely sleek coat of very dark brown and tan. When the silky hair is shed and bristles take its place the temper grows uneven. If marital and paternal cares come on, the wild boar puts away its childish ways and wants to take its family to the forest to feed there on acorns and beech mast. Woe to the hound or to the keeper who wants to keep him back. In the forest this paterfamilias may be called the first line of defense, the sow the second, and the little ones gambol round her.—Paris Cor. London Truth.

Farragut's Pig.

David G. Farragut was but thirteen years old when he served as midshipman under Porter in the battle of the Essex against the Phoebe and Cherub. He was taken to the Phoebe as a prisoner of war, says his biographer, and came aboard crying from mortification. At the same moment, however, a British middy also came alongside with a young pig in his arms.

"A prize! A prize!" he was shouting. "Ho, boys, a fine grunter!"

It was a pig that had been a pet in the steerage of the Essex, where it was called Murphy. Farragut at once claimed it as private property.

"You are a prisoner, and your pig, too," replied the British middy.

"We always respect private property," said Farragut, grabbing the pig and determined to hold on till forced to surrender.

"Go it, little Yankee!" cried the oldsters present. "If you can thrash Shorty you shall have your pig."

A ring was formed, and Shorty came at Farragut hammer and tongs, but the American was handy with his fists. He quickly laid his opponent low. The British bluejackets cheered him heartily, and the pig was declared to be his.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.

For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend Couldn't Lift Ten Pounds.

Doan's Kidney Pills Brought Strength and Health to the Sufferer, Making Him Feel Twenty-Five Years Younger.

Sick kidneys cause a weak, lame or aching back, and a weak back makes a weak man. Can't be well and strong until the kidneys are cured. Treat them with Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's the testimony of one man cured.

J. B. CORTON.

J. B. Corton, farmer and lumberman, of Deppe, N. C., says "I suffered for years with my back. It was so bad that I could not walk any distance nor even ride in easy buggy. I do not believe I could have raised ten pounds of weight from the ground, the pain was so severe. This was my condition when I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. They quickly relieved me and now I am never troubled as I was. My back is strong and I can walk or ride a long distance and feel just as strong as I did twenty-five years ago. I think so much of Doan's Kidney Pills that I have given a supply of the remedy to some of my neighbors and they have also found good results. If you can sift anything from this rambling note that will be of any service to you, or to any one suffering from kidney trouble, you are at liberty to do so."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mr. Corton will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sold by all dealers; price, fifty cents per box.

"Along The Kennebec."

"Along the Kennebec", a New England comedy now in its fourth season, and carrying a fine band and orchestra, will be produced at the Monessen Opera House, tomorrow night. The play is moulded along the same idea as "The Old Homestead", "Shore Acres" and "York State Folks" and deals entirely with country life. Plays of this nature are deservedly popular, inasmuch as they are clean and wholesome and leave a good taste in the mouth They usually illustrate some good moral principal without descending to the oftime morbid sensationalism of the melodrama or the soul-harrowing incidents of the problem play. "Along the Kennebec" is said to have met with great favor wherever produced, and much interest will be taken in the presentation of the play in this city All special scenery is carried for the production.
